

August 7, 2022
10:00 am

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

The other readings for today are Genesis 15:1-6 and Psalm 33:12-22. You are encouraged to read them prior to worship or during the week.

Jesus says, "It is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." It is God's promise from the beginning—to Abraham, to the early church, and to the "little flock" of which we are a part in today's assembly. Faith, God's baptismal gift, trusts the promises of God. Have no fear.

WELCOME!

WELCOME TO WORSHIP: It is our joy to welcome you to worship today, in-person and from wherever you may be viewing. We give thanks for whatever brought you, and pray that you may experience the love of God surrounding you and upholding you as we gather together to give thanks to God through Word and Sacrament.

IF YOU ARE WORSHIPING ONLINE, we invite you to find a comfortable place for worship. Get some crackers or bread and something to drink so that we can share Communion. Light a candle if you have one.

HOLY COMMUNION is God's Word of love made visible in bread and wine. Individual kits containing bread and wine are provided for Communion Distribution. When the Eucharist is served during the service simply peel back the seal for each part at the appropriate time. There are trash receptacles in the Narthex at the same tables you picked up the servings from – please deposit the remnants from the kit there.

WE WELCOME CHILDREN IN WORSHIP! Like Jesus who welcomed children to his ministry, Saint Andrew's welcomes children to our worship services.

- Take-home paper activity bags with stickers, crayons and paper are available from your usher.
- "Younger Disciples Tips" are in the bulletin with ideas to engage children in worship.
- "A Time for Younger Disciples" during worship invites all children to listen to a message.
- Links to download and print an activity sheet for Sunday are in each week's Trendings enews.

RECONCILING IN CHRIST: Saint Andrew's is a Reconciling in Christ congregation. Living into our mission of growing together in Christ to love and serve all people, we welcome and include everyone, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, race, culture, neurodivergence, ability, age, addiction, relationship status, economic circumstances, or other distinction. Please see our full welcoming statement at salc.church/about-us. For more information about being a Reconciling in Christ congregation, visit www.reconcilingworks.org.

During this heightened time of awareness and prevention regarding Coronavirus, we would like to let you know.....

- In compliance with current guidelines, mask wearing is optional.
- As part of normal practices, the Altar Guild washes hands prior to preparing the Communion supplies and ensures that common use items are cleaned for use weekly. Altar Guild servers also sanitize trays and bowls before and after services, and wipe down the altar, railing, and baptismal font before and after services.
- Communion is by individual kits.
- Worship participants wash hands and use hand sanitizer before, during, and after worship.
- At the Peace, we share a verbal "Peace be with You" to maintain physical distancing.
- Hand sanitizer is available throughout the building for use.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, whose steadfast love endures forever.

C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for reflection.

P Merciful God,

C we confess that we have not followed your path but have chosen our own way. Instead of putting others before ourselves, we long to take the best seats at the table. When met by those in need, we have too often passed by on the other side. Set us again on the path of life. Save us from ourselves and free us to love our neighbors. Amen.

P Hear the good news! God delights in granting pardon and mercy. In the name of ☩ Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. You are free to love as God loves.

C Amen.

W O R D

Abraham and Sarah exemplify the vision of faith that people of God enact in every age. Their hope and trust in God's promise allowed them to face an unknown future and to receive the promise of God.

FIRST READING

Hebrews 11:1-3, 11-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.”

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

S Word of God.

C Word of Life.

Please stand.

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav - ing word.

Let it burn like fire with - in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

Jesus encourages disciples to invest their hearts and live fully into God’s reign. Instead of facing life with fear, those who know God’s generosity are always ready to receive from God and to give to others.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE GOSPEL

P The Holy Gospel according to Luke.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

GOSPEL

Luke 12:32-40

[Jesus said:] “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

“Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

“But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.”

P The Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostles' Creed

S Trusting in God's baptismal promises, we affirm our faith using the words of the Apostles' Creed.

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Younger Disciples Tip ~ Prayers/Offering: Invite children to write down who they want to pray for this week and one way they can serve their family/community.

THE PRAYERS

S Merciful God,
C hear our prayer.

THE PEACE

P The peace of Christ be with you always.
C And also with you.

If you are worshiping online, we encourage you to post the peace on a social media platform.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

S Let us pray together. God of abundance:

C you have set before us a plentiful harvest. As we feast on your goodness, strengthen us to labor in your field, and equip us to bear fruit for the good of all, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

M E A L

Please remain seated.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION AND COMMUNION DISTRIBUTION

P Let us pray. Holy, mighty, and merciful God, heaven and earth are full of your glory; you bring light from darkness, life from death, speech from silence.

C We worship you for our lives and for the world you give us.

P We thank you for the new world to come and for the love that will rule all in all.

C We praise you for the grace shown to Israel, your chosen, the people of your promise: the rescue from Egypt, the gift of the promised land, the memory of the ancestors, the homecoming from exile, and the prophets' words that will not be in vain.

P In all this we bless you for your only-begotten Son,

C who fulfilled and will fulfill all your promises.

P I invite you to pick up the bread or cracker that you've set apart for this moment. On the night that Jesus was betrayed, he took bread, blessed and broke it and shared it with his friends, saying, "Take and eat, this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." Please eat the bread or cracker you've set apart. This is the body of Christ, given for you.

Please pick up the wine or juice you've set apart for this moment. After they had eaten, Jesus took the cup, blessed it, and shared it with his friends, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood which is shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me." Please drink the wine or juice you've set apart. This is the blood of Christ, shed for you.

As we take in the very real presence of Christ that we receive in this sacrament, we pray together the prayer he taught us:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

C Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

S Let us pray. Life-giving God, through this meal you have bandaged our wounds and fed us with your mercy. Now send us forth to live for others, both friend and stranger, that all may come to know your love. This we pray in the name of Jesus.
C Amen.

S E N D I N G

Please stand.

Younger Disciples Tip ~ Blessing: Mark the sign of the cross on your child's forehead as a reminder of this sending blessing.

BLESSING

P The God of peace bless you, comfort you , and show you the path of life this day and always.

WELCOME to WORSHIP

WE WELCOME PASTOR SUE WANWIG as our presiding and preaching minister today. Pastor Wanwig is an Associate Pastor and Urban Missionary at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church on Mercer Island. She has worked with Mary's Place, Operation Nightwatch, and God's Little Acre day center in Lake City. She was a Chaplain at the Lutheran Compass Center (now Compass Housing Alliance) for 14 years.

THE FLOWERS are given to the Glory of God by Mary and Aaron Davis in honor of Aaron's birthday and their son Luke's birthday.

COMMEMORATIONS:

Dominic, founder of the Order of Preachers (Dominicans), died 1221 August 8
Dominic was a Spanish priest who saw the wealth of the clergy as a stumbling block for the church, so he formed a movement, the Order of Preachers (commonly called Dominicans) devoted to itinerant preaching and living in poverty.

Lawrence, deacon, martyr, died 258 August 10
As one of the seven deacons of the church at Rome, Lawrence was responsible for the church's financial matters and for the care of the poor. Asked by the emperor to gather the church's treasure, he presented a collection of orphans, lepers, and the like. The enraged emperor had him put to death.

Clare, Abbess of San Damiano, died 1253 August 11
A contemporary of Francis of Assisi, Clare and a growing number of companions established a women's Franciscan community, called the Order of Poor Ladies, or Poor Clares. She inspired other women to pursue spiritual goals.

Florence Nightingale, died 1910 August 13

Clara Maass, died 1901; renewers of society
Nightingale was born in England, and horrified her wealthy family by deciding to become a nurse. She led a group of nurses in ministering in the midst of the Crimean War, and worked for hospital reform. Maass, a native of New Jersey, was also a war nurse, and volunteered as a subject for research on yellow fever. She died of the disease.

FELLOWSHIP

Discipleship Forum - NARRATIVE LECTIONARY

Sunday, August 14, 11:00 am, 301/Fellowship Hall North and via Zoom

Facilitator: Pastor Lara

The Narrative Lectionary (NL) is a four-year cycle (one year for each gospel) for the readings during Sunday worship. From September through May, the readings follow the biblical story from Creation through the early Christian church, showing the breadth and variety of voices within scripture. It offers a much broader overview of the biblical stories than what are typically experienced on a Sunday morning, including stories that are often omitted. Beginning in September, we will use the NL for our Sunday readings during worship. At this Forum, find out more about how these readings will be used in worship and youth education. There will be time for questions too.

Forums are in-person and via Zoom. If you would like to receive email notices of Forums, including the Zoom link, email to Communications Specialist Susan Hegedus, susan@salc.church.

CORNER OF BLESSING - AUGUST: Hopelink has asked us to collect canned vegetables during August. These are popular items and much appreciated. Corn and peas are very popular. However, they don't want green beans or carrots (they get too much of these.) Also, less common items like canned beets and even olives are appreciated. So, for August we will be collecting canned vegetables (about 15-ounce size). But NOT green beans or carrots.
