

The ELCA's Truth and Healing Movement References:

In connection with the ELCA's Truth and Healing Movement, there are a number of interesting references posted on their website. A place to start, particularly if you will be typing in the web address is: ELCA.org/indigenous.

Here you will find a short video by Bishop Eaton about the Truth and Healing Movement and button labeled MORE INFORMATION. This button takes you to the information about the Truth and Healing Movement. It lists and describes the events and classes that were held in 2023. No events have been listed yet for 2024, but this would be the place where they will be listed. A number of these events were recorded and you can access these recordings by selecting the YouTube Playlist. This list includes the documentary that we are viewing in the forum: Native Nations: Standing Together for Civil Rights.

At the top of the Truth and Healing Movement page is a selection called Resources. This brings up a page with two lists of resources. One is ELCA Resources. The other is Resources from other Organizations. There are quite a few resources here, but two that we mentioned at the forum and worth checking out are these two documents:

Repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery

A Declaration of the ELCA to American Indian and Alaska Native People

If you look at the Resources from other organizations, you will see that the ELCA isn't alone in this movement. We are joined by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada (ELCIC), the Anglican Church in Canada and the Episcopal Church. Note on this list the Native Reads Bookshop. Native Reads exclusively sells books by and about the Indigenous peoples of Turtle Island.
